

COLOMBIA

The world's most dangerous place for unionized workers

Colombia is the country where more trade unionists are killed than in the rest of the world combined.

You are invited to a public forum on:

Mining, Oil Resources,
Free Trade and
Human Rights in Colombia

Sky Dragon Centre
27 King William St.
Hamilton, Ontario

Saturday, December 6,
2008
7:00 p.m.

Music
& Food

The Canadian Labour Congress and its affiliated unions are launching the second wave of the Campaign to Stop the Canada-Colombia Free Trade Agreement (CCFTA).

Speakers:

Jesus Lorenzo Brochero,
Communications Officer,
Coal Miners Union (SINTRACARBON),
Cerrejon, Colombia.

Brochero is an expert on health impacts of coal mining and free trade impacts on mining in Colombia.

Garry Leech, author, journalist and researcher on human rights issues related to the oil and mining sectors in Colombia.

Co-sponsored by: The Canadian Labour Congress (CLC)
Canadian Autoworkers (CAW)
Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE)
Canadian Union of Postal Workers (CUPW)
Communications, Energy & Paperworkers (CEP)
Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation (OSSTF)
Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC)
United Steelworkers (USW)

Canadian Labour Congress
Congrès du travail du Canada

canadianlabour.ca