

BUILDING SOLIDARITY

WITH RIO TINTO WORKERS IN MADAGASCAR

The Steelworkers Humanity Fund has recently implemented a project focusing on workers' rights with SVS and SEKRIMA, two unions representing employees of the QMM mine in Madagascar. The company, a subsidiary of the multinational Rio Tinto, generates hundreds of jobs, but relies on a large group of sub-contracted workers who do not receive the same wages and benefits as permanent employees.

STEELWORKERS HUMANITY FUND

FONDS HUMANITAIRE
DES MÉTALLOS

