7.02 Procedure for selecting the Chairperson of the Arbitration Board

(a) The arbitration procedure incorporated in this agreement shall be based on the use of a single arbitrator, selected on a rotating basis from a panel of four arbitrators.

The arbitrators shall act singly, and in rotation, with respect to each successive grievance that is referred to arbitration. Seniority as referred to in this agreement shall mean length of continuous service in the employ of the Employer in the bargaining unit until seniority is terminated under Article 8.03. Where two employees are hired on the same date, the employee whose application was received by the Company first will be recognized as the most senior employee.

8.02 Probationary Period

(a) All employees shall be on probation until they have completed sixty (60) days of work for the Company, following which they shall become regular employees and will then be given seniority. It is understood that any hours worked by a probationary employee on any shift counts as a day worked.

(b) Termination of employment of an employee by the Employer during the probationary period may become subject to the grievance or arbitration procedure of this agreement.

8.03 Seniority and Employment Termination

An employee shall lose his/her seniority and shall be deemed to have terminated his/her employment when:

(b) He/she is discharged and is not reinstated through the grievance procedure;

(d) He/she does no work for the Employer as a result of a compensable injury for a period of thirty (30) months or for a period of time equal to his/her service at the time that the absence commenced (up to one (1) year), whichever is less;

(e) He/she, upon being recalled from a lay-off, fails to report to work within five (5) working days from the date of notification by the Employer, unless the employee informs the employer that he/she is currently employed, in which case he/she will be given ten (10) working days to report to work;

(h) He/she is retired in accordance with the provisions of the Retirement Plan.

Where employees are absent due to either compensable or non-compensable injury or illness and may be terminated in accordance with (c) or (d) above, the Company will review each case to determine if the termination is in accord with existing legislation and to determine the likely prognosis. Where the prognosis suggests a possible return to work in a reasonable period of time, the Company may, at its discretion, extend the provisions of (c) or (d) above.

Where in the opinion of the Company compliance with (c) or (d) would violate existing legislation, it will have the discretion to extend the provisions of(c) and (d) above.

8.04 Seniority and Employment Termination for Being Absent from Work Without Notifying the Employer

An employee who is unable to report for work will be expected to notify the Employer by the time that he/she is due to report for work. Three (3) work days without reporting shall be considered cause for dismissal.

8.05 Lay-offs and Recalls from Lay-offs

In the event of a recall or a lay-off (either from the employee’s posted job in which the bumping procedure is invoked, or if laid-off from the plant) the employee with the greatest seniority will be the last to be laid-off and conversely

In the event of a lay-off because of an emergency, breakdown or a planned close down of less than four (4) weeks of operations the employee with the greatest seniority will be the last to be laid-off provided they can perform the required job they bumped into without additional training.

It is understood that employees on lay-off have rights under the agreement for grievance and arbitration, seniority and credited services as provided under Articles 8 and 9 respectively, and are subject to recall under Article 8.

It is understood that if an employee is laid-off from their last posted job or the job originally hired for, that when the above mentioned job is available the employee must return to this job (by seniority). If that employee has posted for a different job during the time the employee is laid-off, the employee has no return rights to the previous job.

8.06 Seniority Lists

A) Seniority lists will be supplied to the Union and posted on the bulletin three (3) working days. A copy of the posting will be provided to the Union. Employees may make written application for such jobs during the posted period. Applicants will be advised of the results of their application within five (5) working days, after removing the posting from bulletin boards. Probationary employees are not eligible for postings, but can submit their names for consideration.

Within a week of the selection of the successful candidate, the Company will advise the Union in writing of their name and the position they have vacated.

b) The Company will determine the successful candidate to a job posting for all positions excluding the Aseptic Technician position(s) by seniority.
