APPENDIX "B"

The Company and the Union, recognizing the concern of the employees as they might be affected by technological changes or by a partial or complete branch closure, have agreed to the following severance payment:

The Company agrees, when such changes are contemplated, to discuss such changes through the Union Management Committee and to give eight (8) weeks' notice to the Union, except if the partial or complete branch closure is caused by strike and/or lock-out.

The Company will make every reasonable effort, where practical, to retrain employees so affected.

Technological change means the introduction by the Company into the production process of new equipment or machinery of a type which was not previously used by the Company and which results in layoffs of employees.

If any employee is to have his employment terminated because of technological changes or because of a partial or complete branch closure, the Company shall pay severance pay to each permanent employee and part-time employee (on a pro-rated basis) whose employment has been terminated.

Such severance pay shall be in an amount equal to the employee's regular wages for a regular non-overtime work week multiplied by two multiplied by the number of years of service (inclusive of statutory amounts).

An employee entitled to severance pay may elect to be paid the severance pay forthwith or may elect to maintain the right to be recalled. Where the employee elects to be paid the severance pay forthwith, the employee shall be deemed to have abandoned the right to be recalled and will be terminating his employment relationship with the Company.

Contracting out shall not cause the layoff of any employee whose name appears on the seniority list as of the date of the signing of the memorandum of settlement for this collective agreement. Any permanent employee and part-time employee (on a prorated basis) hired after such date who is laid off due to contracting out will qualify for severance pay.

Severance pay shall not be payable to:

a) An employee who refuses an offer by the Company of reasonable alternative employment within the Bargaining Unit.

b) An employee who refuses to exercise his seniority rights to obtain reasonable alternative employment.

c) An employee who has been guilty of willful misconduct or disobedience or willful neglect of duty that has not been condoned by the Company.

Any amount paid by virtue of this adjustment plan reduces any amount of severance pay or termination pay otherwise payable under existing or subsequently enacted legislation.
