

USW District 6 Casual Organizer Application

USW District 6 (Ontario and Atlantic provinces) is seeking casual organizers to be involved in current and future organizing campaigns. This is an exciting opportunity to help other workers exercise their collective rights and grow our union.

Successful candidates will have an upbeat attitude, be comfortable talking to strangers, be a self-starter and work well in teams. Other requirements include:

- Collective agreement leave language that allows union leave for short and long term.
- The flexibility to be away from home for up to three weeks at a time.
- Being able to work all different hours.
- Being a member of a USW District 6 local union.

Please complete application below or print, complete and return your application to USW District 6 Organizing Co-ordinator Darlene Jalbert at djalbert@usw.ca or fax to 613-260-7207.
